

Celebration of National Youth Day (12th January 2018)

Greetings of Saturday !

India celebrates National Youth Day on 12th January every year. It is celebrated to commemorate the birthday of Swami Vivekananda – a youth icon. Objective of this celebration is to inspire all the youths of country towards the philosophy of Swami Vivekananda and his ideals. And help fulfill the unfulfilled dream of Swami Vivekananda – making ‘Bharat’ Mata a ‘Vishvguru’

To motivate and inspire its students towards teachings of Swami Vivikanand, C U Shah University Wadhwan is also participating in this world wide celebration.

Proposed / Possible Program for constituent Colleges of C. U. Shah University.

1. Talk on ‘Role of Teacher’ / ‘Swami Vivekanand’s concept of Education and student’.
2. Elocution competition of teachers on ‘Role of Teacher in Higher Education’
Both shall be based on Swami Vivekanand’s view.
3. Elocution competition of students on following topics
 - Swami Vivkanand’s concept of Education
 - Swami Vivekanand: A youth Icon
 - Learning from Life of Swami Vivekanand.
 - Swami Vivkenanad an Ambassador of Indian Culture
4. We can keep book stall wherein we can distribute books and other merchandise at very low cost to the students. We will get it from Ramkrishna Ashram on credit and unsold things will be returned back.

Please contact Dr. Tejash Pujara, Dean, Faculty of Management Studies for any discussions / coordination.
