

C. U Shah University
Faculties of Pharmacy, Life Science and Pure Science

Date: 17/08/2017

Army Cantonment Visit at Dhrangadhra - 2017

Army Cantonment visit at Dhrangadhra was organized by Indian Army Cantonment of Dhrangadhra for students of B. Pharmacy, Life Science and Pure Science of C. U. Shah University on 5/08/2017 at Dhrangadhra, Gujarat.

Dhrangadhra is famous for its army cantonment. It trains a large number of soldiers in various sophisticated defense equipments, techniques and armories to serve the nation.

Brigadier S. S. Bakshi, gave an introduction about disciplined life of the Army personnel's. He also informed the gathering, that how Indian army serves our motherland in various harsh conditions, not only that recently the soldiers of Indian Army played an active role during heavy rain and rescue operations in flood affected areas of Surendranagar and Banaskantha by saving the lives of many peoples.

After his speech, army personnel showed some mock drill training during war situations. They displayed various artillery and ancilliary equipments used during war. Captain Chitransh, Army Cantonment of Dhrangadhra gave information how to operate the various kinds of weapons such as AK 47, AK 56, Light machine guns, rocket launchers, motar and GPS technology. The students were very enthusiastic and motivated to join the army in near future to serve our nation.

About 120 students of B. Pharmacy, Life Science and Pure Science of C. U. Shah University watched a short documentary regarding different artillery and ancilliary equipments used during war. The 7 South wing info meet ended with the national anthem and a cup of tea. Students were very excited to visit this valuable informative program. Later on students were dropped to Surendranagar by army vehicles.

Dr. Dhramveersinh Parmar, Dr. Satyajit Sahoo, Dr. Manish Soni, Dr. Bonny Patel, Mrs. Anjali Soni and Miss Priya Mehta coordinated this visit under the guidance of Dr. Girish K. Goswami, Campus Director and Dr Vedvyas Dwivedi, ProVice Chancellor, C. U. Shah University.

